IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR INSTRUCTORS

I will continue to teach INSTRUCTOR/TRAINER courses that will certify one to teach courses that provide certificates per KRS 237.110 to receive a KY CCDW PERMIT.

If you want to teach courses for students to obtain a Kentucky CCDW Permit I will gladly train you to be an NRA INSTRUCTOR so you can teach the NRA Basic Pistol Shooting Course.

- 1) The NRA Basic Pistol Shooting Course is now approved by the Kentucky State Police for receiving a KY CCDW Permit.
- 2) The teaching materials given to students in the NRA Basic Pistol Shooting course include professionally created full-color books and pamphlets with color photographs rather than black and white drawings.
- 3) $15 per student is the approximate cost to the trainer to provide the materials for an NRA Basic Pistol Shooting course
- 4) The price to the student of an NRA Basic Pistol Shooting Course is set by the trainer and in many states is from $100-$150 and is NOT FIXED BY KENTUCKY LAW.
- 5) When one teaches the NRA Basic Pistol Shooting Course there is little risk of being charged with a FELONY if the class is taught improperly. However, one could lose their credentials and have civil liability as in any other class one teaches.
- 6) The United States Concealed Carry Association (USCCA) is currently working with the Kentucky State Police to have a class approved for the KY CCDW Permit. The above items are also true for the USCCA course. I AM A USCCA INSTRUCTOR.
